MINIMUM WAGE BOARD.

ORDER No. 17B (EMERGENCY) RELATING TO FRUIT AND VEGETABLE INDUSTRY.

Effective June 15th, 1933, to December 31st, 1933.

WHEREAS on the 3rd day of September, 1926, an obligatory Order was issued by the Minimum Wage Board relating to the fruit and vegetable industry under the provisions of the "Minimum Wage Act," being chapter 173 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1924," by paragraphs 2 and 3 of which Order a minimum wage in respect of the said industry was fixed for experienced female employees therein:

And whereas the said Order became effective in sixty days from the date thereof, and has since been continuously in force, subject during the period from the 15th day of June, 1932, to the 15th day of November, 1932, to the provisions of Emergency Order No. 17A, dated the 14th day of June, 1932:

And whereas the Board, under the provisions of section 6 of the said Act, has held public meetings in Penticton on the 25th and 26th days of May, 1933; at Vancouver on the 27th day of May, 1933; and at Victoria on the 12th day of June, 1933, at which employers and employees in the said fruit and vegetable industry and the general public were heard:

And whereas, in the exercise of the discretion vested in it by the said Act, without reconvening or calling any conference, the Board has reopened the question respecting the minimum wage so fixed by the said Order, and has considered the question:

Now the Board doth order, in amendment of the said Order of the 3rd day of September, 1926, that for the period from the 15th day of June, 1933, to the 31st day of December, 1933, both dates inclusive, the minimum wage fixed by the said Order for experienced female employees in the fruit and vegetable industry (including the respective rates per hour or per piece fixed in respect thereof) shall be reduced by the deduction therefrom of ten per centum of the amount thereof; and that except to the extent and for the period herein provided the said Order of the 3rd day of September, 1926, shall continue in full force and effect as if this Order had not been made.

Dated the 14th day of June, 1933.

ADAM BELL, Chairman,
HELEN GREGORY MACGILL,
HERBERT GEDDES,

Members of the Minimum Wage Board.

Each employer shall post, and keep posted, a copy of this Order in each room in which employees affected by the Order are employed.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(a.) To take over from Edgar Lisle Armstrong, Louis Hamilton Nixon, and Harpur Cyril Nixon the business heretofore carried on by them as the "Cariboo Coach Lines," and including automobiles, franchise, and good-will:

(b.) To carry on the business of transportation and forwarding agents, and to own and operate automobiles, taxicabs, omnibuses, trucks, and other conveyances; to establish, build, maintain, and operate garages and warehouses, and generally to act as common carriers and freight contractors:

(c.) To buy, sell, exchange, or otherwise deal in automobiles, trucks, and other motor-vehicles and parts thereof, gas, oil, and other sundries commonly used by motorists, and to carry on a general automobile-repair business:

(d.) To establish and maintain stopping-places, hotels, lunch-counters, automobile camps, and amusement resorts:

(e.) To purchase, take on lease, exchange, or otherwise acquire any improved or unimproved lands in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any right over or in connection with land, and to survey, subdivide, lease, exchange, sell, mortgage, or otherwise deal with or encumber such lands or any estate or interest therein, and to build, contract for, construct or erect thereon stores or other buildings, and to use, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same as the Company may see fit:

(f.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(g.) To lend moneys to such persons or companies and upon such terms as may seem expedient, and upon such security, whether real or personal, as the directors may see fit, and in particular to customers or any person, firm, or corporation having dealings with the Company:

(h.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use or grant licences in respect thereof or otherwise turn to account, any patents, inventions, licences, secret processes, trade secrets, and the like, conferring an exclusive or limited right to use the same or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(i.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company, at par or at a premium, fully or partly paid up:

(j.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventures, reciprocal concessions, co-operation, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(k.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the property of the Company or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other instruments:

(l.) To subscribe for, take, and hold shares for fully or partly paid-up shares in any other company:
